

South African Revenue Protection Association

SPONSORSHIP – 2010 SARPA NATIONAL CONVENTION

Dear SARPA Supporters

The 2010 South African Revenue Protection Association Convention will be hosted in Johannesburg, on 29 – 30 July 2010.

The aim of the convention is to share information and knowledge between the role-players in the revenue protection environment and to equip our members utilities to minimize revenue losses. Revenue protection services provides have always played a significant role in equipping our members.

The theme of this years convention is:

“STRIVING TOWARDS EXCELLENCE BY SUSTAINING THE EFFORT”

The following are some of the areas which will be addressed during the convention:

SUB-THEMES:

- Sharing knowledge and achievements
- Quality control management tools
- Performance enhancement and measurements
- How to ensure the consumers support the effort
- Legal issues and solutions
- New innovations and strategies
- Creating an effective environment for revenue protection
- Funding and viability of revenue protection
- Technical innovation
- Socio-political solutions and trends
- Impact of the electricity price hike
- Impact of the municipal elections

SARPA is non-profit organization which comprises predominately of utility members. SARPA will once again be looking for sponsors this year to help cover the costs of the convention. Organisations who contribute toward sponsorship for the convention will be acknowledged in the conference proceeding book as well as being mentioned several times throughout the convention.

There is a variety of opportunities that can be sponsored at the convention, the convention satchels/folders, programme/proceedings book, lunches, teas & refreshments, exhibition area, etc.

SARPA represents approximately 180 utilities in South Africa, your organisation will receive exposure through all the utility representative members at the convention.

Should your organisation be interested in getting involved this year, please contact Marlindi Bosch at SARPA on 011 789 1384 or email marlindi@vdw.co.za

Please assist us in making SARPA Convention 2010 an unforgettable experience!

Yours faithfully,

Malesele Lelaka
SARPA PRESIDENT